DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the appeal brief filed on 04/20/2006, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED.

The finality of the office action is withdrawn and a new ground of rejection is set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) request reinstatement of the appeal.

If reinstatement of the appeal is requested, such request must be accompanied by a supplemental appeal brief, but no new amendments, affidavits (37 CFR 1.130, 1.131 or 1.132) or other evidence are permitted. See 37 CFR 1.193(b)(2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 13 is rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Claim 13 is depended upon previously cancelled claims (please see amendment filed 07/24/2003).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) The invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

3. Claims 1-3 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Koschwitz (DE-3818-552).

Regarding claim 1, Koschwitz discloses a method (Fig. 1), comprising: attaching a tunable damping element (5) to a resonating element (1-4); and increasing an amount of tension in said resonating element (6-7) to increase a resonant frequency of the resonating element in a way that decreases an effect of stimulated audio on the resonating element as claimed.

Regarding claims 2, Koschwitz further discloses the method, wherein the tunable damping element includes a rod (5), which is connected to said resonating element, for increasing tightness of the tunable damping element (6-7) as claimed.

Regarding claims 3 and 5, Koschwitz further discloses the resonance damping method, wherein said resonating element includes a speaker enclosure (loudspeaker box) as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Koschwitz (DE-3818-552).

Regarding claim 6, Koschwitz does not clearly teach for providing washers as claimed. Since providing suitable washer for desirably tightening a nut on a threaded rod, Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to be motivated to provide the suitable washer for desirably tightening the nut on the threaded rod as an alternate choice, in order to provide more steady engagement and further reduce noise.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 7-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
